

MOHAWK

MOUNTAIN

SNOWSPORTS DISCOVERY CENTER

WHAT IS YOUR SKIER OR SNOWBOARDER LEVEL?

SKI

- 1 Skiing fundamentals for the first time skier and those who have been away from the sport of would like to start fresh!
- 2 You can negotiate the surface lifts and are learning to link turns.
- 3 You have been introduced to the chair lift and can make controlled linked turns. Skis are generally in a gliding wedge and you are beginning to explore lift accessed green terrain.
- 4 You are comfortable making controlled linked turns on lift access green terrain and can turn to a stop at any time. Skis are becoming more parallel on green terrain and you are beginning to explore blue terrain.
- 5 You are comfortable making controlled linked turns on blue terrain. Skis are generally parallel on green terrain and becoming more parallel on blue terrain. You may have started to explore different turn shapes and may begin to explore black terrain.
- 6 You are comfortable making controlled linked turns on black terrain. Skis are generally parallel on green and blue terrain, and are becoming more parallel on black terrain. You may have started to explored the fundamentals of carving and you are familiar with different turn shapes.
- 7 You are comfortable making controlled linked turns of various sizes on all of Mohawk Mountain's terrain. You have begun to make more dynamic turns and explore higher edge angles.
- 8 You are confident skiing all of Mohawk Mountain's terrain in any condition. You are skiing with higher edge angles in various turn shapes and using the sidecut of the ski to its full potential. You may be looking to tune up for a race course or hone your skills for a big mountain experience.

SNOWBOARD

- 1 Snowboarding fundamentals for first time riders and those who have been away from the sport and would like to start fresh!
- 2 You can negotiate the surface lifts, skate, glide, and turn both heel and toe side with one foot strapped in.
- 3 You have been introduced to the chair lift and can make skidded turns on both heel and toe side with both feet strapped in. You have begun to explore lift accessed green terrain.
- 4 You are comfortable making controlled linked turns on green terrain. You may begin to explore blue terrain and some surface tricks.
- 5 You are comfortable making controlled linked turns on blue terrain and are exploring different turn shapes. You may begin to explore black terrain and the fundamentals of carving.
- 6 You are comfortable making controlled linked turns on black terrain. You can make dynamic turns of various sizes and have begun to carve. You may begin to explore riding switch.
- 7 You are comfortable making controlled dynamic carved turns of various sizes on all of Mohawk Mountain's terrain. You are riding switch and implementing surface tricks naturally.
- 8 You are confident riding all of Mohawk Mountain's terrain in any condition and in various turn shapes both regular and switch. You are riding with higher edge angles using the flex and sidecut of your board to its full potential.